Harriman and Hill Shares Heavy Selling of May Op-Fall Under Monday's Final Quotations.

New York, N. Y., Aug. S.—The stock list again developed a sagging tend-ency towards noon, prices falling all around on relatively small offerings. The Harriman and Hill shares, Read-The Harriman and Hill shares, Reading and other speculative issues fell under the preceding day's final quotations. The decline doubtless was assisted by a renewal of selling for the short accounts, which seemed to gather courage from this rise.

There were reports of private settlements between certain large bull operators and bankers resulting from the market's recent reaction.

ators and bankers resulting from the market's recent reaction.

Bonds were steady.

The selling increased during the midday and further recessions were scored. Weakness was most marked in some of the standard railroads, including Wisconsin Central, which declined 4%; Toledo, St. Louis and Western preferred, Colorado Southern, Missouri Pacific in this same group.

The market seemed to fall of its own weight by material assistance as prices declined. New low records for the movement were general and the selling was evidently of an urgent character.

Amalgamated Copper fell with the rest of the list, despite the favorable July statement of output. Losses at 2 oclock ran from 5% in Canadian Pacific to two or three points else-where in the active list. Fractional rallies followed, but the absence of anything denoting substantial support anything denoting substantial support was evident.

The market closed heavy. The list declined again in the final hour, but did not reach the previous low level. This was followed by short covering and some buying with rallies of 1 to 1½ in Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Reading, United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and other active issues, while Canadian Pacific recovered 2%.

Convention in Kansas City Has For Purpose Creating of Parks.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 8.—With more than a hundred delegates present from all parts of the nation, the 13th annual convention of American association of park superintendents opened here today. Fresh air and greenery for the poor in cities, whom such things are luxuries, was the speaker's theme.

"Some wag has said that the only thing the American indian still owns is indian summer," said Mr. Ashley, "but are we American pale faces much better off? #### PERKINS REFUSES TO GIVE ANSWERS

Be Held in Contempt. His High Finance.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 8.—Angered by the continued refusal of George W. Perkins to testify regarding campaign contributions, either personally or through his affiliation with the New York Life Insurance company, chair-man Stanley, of the house steel trust investigating committee, late today in-timated to Mr. Perkins that he had better appear before the bar of the house at its next session if he would

"avoid the necessity of the chairman resorting to radical authority." Mr. Stanley said it would then be up to the house to determine whether the committee had exceeded its powers in going into campaign contributions or whether the witness was in absolute contempt of congress. Perkins, who is former chairman of the finance committee of the United States Steel corporation, was on the stand today when chairman Stanley produced a copy of the minutes of the steel corporation's executive committee showing that in March, 1902, Mr. Perkins proposed a plan to raise $50,000 without costing the corporation a

This financial achievement was to have been attained by taking up about 40 percent of the preferred stock or about $200,000,000 costing $14,000,000 a year in dividends at 7 percent and to issue instead $250,000,000 of second mortgage 5 percent bonds. This would have added $50,000,000 in new money and would have resulted in saving to the corporation $1,500,000 a year.

There was nothing in the minutes to indicate that the plan had been car-ried through, although it apparently met with the approval of these present at the meeting at the time.
Up to this time no formal summons had been served on Mr. Parkins, how-

Mr. Perkins denied that any part of his salary had by agreement been turned into a fund for campaign contributions. He declared he knew nothing of any fund to effect either state or national legislation. Representative Beall announced that if the committee had the power to do so, he would inquire into the campaign contribution of every director of the steel corporation.
